In German, the Little Vampire series is wonderful, a story of friendship that is literally beyond the grave. I have not read the English translation, but can tell you the book as Sommer-Bodenburg wrote it is much better than the movie. Reading the children's literature of a country is a great window into the country itself, and also a great way to practice your German if you are rusty.

Bought this book for my German Girlfriend. I don't speak German so can't comment on the story but I can say it's a lovely looking book, very nice cover and nice fine touches such as blood splatter on random pages inside the book. Was very impressed with the friendliness of in their contact and shipping from seller. It's a nice book for a present.
