REVISED REVIEW: Lee Hadnum comes to this assignment of providing information on guarding our assets with fine credentials. He is a Law graduate, Chartered Accountant and Chartered Tax Adviser and has a strong depth of experience in tax and asset protection strategies. He has published many books here on and I have read and reviewed several - they are all excellent. Lee Haddam has assembled this book about saving money on taxes in that area of expertise most of us think is the purview of only the very wealthy. Tax havens are real and though the twenty five `world's best tax havens' are described in detail and the variations in the laws as far as residency requirements and banking practices of each may vary, the fundamentals are here for our edification. In many respects the ultimate way to slash your tax bill is by becoming a non-resident or moving your assets offshore it is possible to cut your tax bill to zero. However, there are also many traps and dangers for the unwary. This guide will arm you with the facts needed to avoid these pitfalls and, most importantly, save tax! This guide contains all the very latest tax changes. In this intensively organized yet very easy to read book, NON-RESIDENT AND OFFSHORE TAX PLANING 2014 -2015, Hadnum gratefully takes the reader by the hand and steadies us to the realities of the world economy today. In his introduction he lays out his purpose: `This guide is designed to help those living or working abroad pay less tax on their UK income and investments. It also contains important information for those who live in the UK but wish to use the offshore tax rules to shelter their income and gains from the taxman. This is an important and sophisticated area of tax planning.
