The Amish Firefighter's Widow: Amish Romance (Expectant Amish Widows Book 8)

Synopsis

When Amish woman Katie's volunteer firefighter husband dies while in the line of duty, she is heartbroken. Not only have her two young sons lost their father, but the child she is carrying will never know him. Her husband's best friend, Mark, steps in to take care of Katie and her children. Many months pass and Mark is offered an opportunity away from Lancaster County. Not wanting to leave Katie and the children behind, he makes his feelings known. Katie tells Mark she would never marry again, and if she did, it would never be to another firefighter. Katie urges him to take the job. Months turn into years before Katie realizes that she has made a terrible mistake. When Mark finally returns, will Katie find that she's left things too late? Customer Reviews

Samantha Price did another outstanding job with this story but I did get a tad Frustrated with Katie in her holding everything in but I guess we all do our own grieving in different ways. Enjoy as much as I did. GAB

A sweet love story. I loved Mark he was so noble and caring. It was good to read Katie's journey through to feeling OK to love again.

Enjoyed reading this book. Good clean reading I would recommend this series of books to any one that enjoys Amish books

This was a delightful book to read. I highly recommend reading this book and this author. I have enjoyed all her books.

Another good pregnant Amish widow story by Samantha Price. I loved the sweet relationship Mark had with the two boys.

What a great book. Loved the characters , the plot was typical but that was ok. A great second chance!! Loved it

This is such a good read. It was true to live a lovely romance. When we trust in Him our lives can turnaround.
