Lost Across The Ocean

Synopsis

This is a tale of time travel at a specific node of space and time. The threads of time are twisted at hikwapa, hole in the wind and entrance to the spirit world. One youth Hin Muke from the distant past enters the cave and travels into the future. Simultaneously two young men Phil & Tim enter the cave and travel back in time. These three youth have exchanged places in culture, people and environs, now they must adapt to survive. In the first chapter Onto the Spirit Road, Hin Muke tells Sally an anthropologist of Thunderbird, who guides his people from earth to sky. In the second chapter, a romance develops between the Thunder brothers Phil & Tim and two beautiful women Telalamzi & Oosoko wi who help them survive among Native Americans. You will meet Makah chief of the gentle and strong Salmon people, Kalinko chief of their allies the Bison hunters. Kwanhata and the Mammoth hunters will lead you on a chase through the wilderness and a final battle with the Nishi utara, ancient mariners of the Pacific, and the Bison hunters. The mystery of the Nishi and their leader Yimantiwinyai, lost across the ocean, is unravelled in the Coming of Many Horses. A glossary is included for you to fully experience and understand the life of Native Americans in the time when America was really beautiful and the wilderness was not threatened by civilization. Wilderness is the preservation of the world.
