Synopsis

Enjoy three autumn-themed stories from Christian author, Janice Thompson

BOOK ONE: Red Like Crimson Sin has caused a rift in their relationship. When Adrienne, a Bible college student, realizes she's expecting a baby, she faces a monumental decision. Filled with guilt and shame, she makes the impulsive and regrettable choice to run to leave college, to leave the relationship, and to return home to her parents in Pennsylvania. The fog of shame has altered her thinking. Staying in the relationship will prevent the man she loves from fulfilling his God-appointed call to become a missionary. But, as the days, months and years tick by, Adrienne regrets her decision. After coming to grips with God's grace, she attempts to find Chris her daughter's father, so that she can share the truth of what she's done. Unfortunately, he is impossible to locate, now that he's ministering in the jungles of Nicaragua. With all hopes of locating him gone, a reconciliation feels hopeless. Chris-rejected, confused, and heartbroken at the loss of the woman he loves-has finished school and finds himself in Nicaragua, loving life as a missionary. But the void left by Adrienne's unexplained departure remains. When Chris returns to the States for a friend's wedding, is his unexpected meeting with Adrienne a coincidence or a "God incidence?" Can they put aside the past and embrace a future together as a family?

BOOK TWO: A Class of Her Own When Laura Chapman's husband of over twenty years passes away, she finds herself the sole provider for two teenage children, lonely and frightened, and determined to return to college to obtain a degree. Then she lands in the same history class with her daughter and finds herself offending the toughest professor on campus. Professor Andrew Dougherty, still a bachelor at forty-seven, has sworn off women. His heart was broken years earlier by a skittish fiancée. Just when Laura feels that she has no alternative but to drop out of school due to stress and finances, Andrew begins to realize that it is time for the battle to cease between them. He is beginning to discover that his feelings for Laura Chapman are not at all what he thought at first.

BOOK THREE: The Wedding Caper Join Annie Peterson, mother of the bride, as she solve crimes on her way to the wedding. In book one (The Wedding Caper) a $25,000 night deposit mysteriously disappears from the Clark County Savings and Loan, and Annie Peterson takes on the role of amateur sleuth to solve the mystery. Only one problem. . .she knows nothing about crime solving! With loads of humor and just enough of a mystery to make you wonder whodunit, this story is perfect for a cozy read. NOTE: These stories all have a strong Christian message. Each of these books has already been released as an individual title and/or in other collections.

Customer Reviews

The theme of the first story is about God's forgiveness and our receiving His forgiveness of our sins. This is a sweet story, well written and easy to relate to spiritually because we all have trouble accepting God's forgiveness of our sins that we perceive as unforgivable. The characters, Adrienne, her parents, Christopher and the precious Lorelei are well developed and very likable. The story deals with past sexual sins, but is a very clean romance and also very inspiring. The theme of the second story is about living life after a tragic or difficult loss. Laura's husband, Greg died three years ago, leaving her and her two teenage children to adjust to life without him. Professor Andrew Dougherty was dumped before his wedding and can't get over the loss or. The story is well written and also relational because everyone experiences loss and each is impacted by the choices we make. Also is the reminder that Christians are never alone, God is always there. The third story is a "who-done-it" with lots of humor and inspiration I enjoyed all three!

Set of clean, lighthearted romance novels. The 3 books are unrelated as far as the actual stories go which could be good or bad depending on how you look at it. I found 2 of the stories harder to get into because they start a little slow but overall I enjoyed reading all of them. Definitely worth the $0.99 that I paid for the set.

A wonderful collection of three books by Janice Thompson. Red Like Crimson is first A beautiful story of Forgiveness. I loved this story. I fell in love with Adrienne, Chris and Lorelei. This is well written. In addition to the main theme of experiencing God's forgiveness, I loved the sub themes with the precocious seven year old. This is a story I will want to read again. A Class of her own is in the middle A tender story which I loved. I could relate to Laura going back to school later in life. It is not easy. The way the story deals with grief and moving on was exactly right. I loved the inspirational theme and as always the way Janice weaves all the elements of the story together. The Wedding Caper is last. A mystery with humor, and inspiration make a wonderful combination. This book had me reigned in from the very start. It was such an enjoyable read. I was kept guessing until the very end. For those who love mysteries this is wonderful. However with the humor and the spiritual thread thrown in it is also a book that even those who don't like mysteries will love. Janice Thompson did a tremendous job with this book.

SUCH A HEART WARMING STORIES I'M LOOKING FOR MORE BY JANICE SIMPSON. AS THIS STORY REMINDS US THAT GOD ALWAYS FORGIVES US AS WE SHOULD ALWAYS FORGIVE!!!GOD IS SO GOOD TO THOSE WHO LOVE HIM

I love Janice Thompson's books. Characters are quirky and you can't help but falling in love with the heroes. Keep them coming, Janice. You always meet my expectation with good wholesome christian romance.

I'm just starting the 3rd book and have greatly enjoyed the first 2. Nice, Christian stories with no sexual content, tales of redemption. I love these. Will definitely look for more by this author

I enjoyed all 3 of these stories. Liked how the author entwined the Scriptures in all the books. The word of God is very important. She was not preachy about it. Read this book you will enjoy.

I thoroughly enjoyed all the books in this series, but especially the last one. It was a combination of humor and mystery , very enjoyable
