FORGET PARIS ~ Autumn Macarthur American graduate student Zoe Gallagher doesn't believe in romance. But when she meets Gabriel Rossigny in Paris on Valentine's Day, how can she resist the most romantic city in the world on the most romantic day of the year? One wonderful day proves nothing, she tells herself, only gives more evidence her theory is right. But back in London, Zoe discovers she needs Gabe's help to learn the biggest lesson of all. Love does last. Especially God's love.

FAITH, LOVE AND FRIED CHICKEN: SPRING ~ Laura J. Marshall Marriage plans are in full swing, but circumstances around Jaycee and Dash's wedding have gone from stressful to worrying. Will the pains of life cause them to postpone for a more convenient time? Let the peach-perfumed air of spring caress you in this last installment of this southern series as Jaycee finds love.

OUT OF THE BLUE ~ Janice Thompson Katie Walken has been running most of her life "from her Amish upbringing, from her family's expectations, and from an arranged marriage to Karl Borg. Now a real estate agent, Katie feels she finally has the life she always wanted. . .or does she? Karl lost his love when she fled from their future in Amish country. Leaving home, too, he became an attorney. But his heart remains with Katie. When Katie and Karl are reunited, they seem to have a second chance at love. Will they allow God to help them face their past while looking toward their future?

SPRING AT BARNCASTLE ~ Lynette Sowell After a career disaster, Sadie Barncastle finds herself in rural Vermont, starting over and opening up a shop at the family inn. She meets up with an old friend from childhood, Peter Appleman, a widower next door with a precocious daughter. But Sadie's not sure if life in the Green Mountains is for her and feels the call of Boston drawing her. Peter, however, is drawn to Sadie but isn't quite sure if he's ready to move on yet. As Easter approaches, a time of forgiveness, restoration, and joy, the two realize that it's also a time for new beginnings, but does that include with each other?

SPRING BREAK ~ Susette Williams Kelly Sanders volunteers at an orphanage and loves working with children "even if they can be a bit mischievous at times. Marc Stevenson is used to fighting fires, not rescuing damsels in distress out of trees. He thinks Kelly would be perfect for him, except for that one flaw. How does a man, with visions of children, fill a nest that's sure to be empty if he spends it with the woman he loves? Will some munchkins playing matchmaker be able to bring Kelly and Marc together? Or will love's ember never have the chance to be ignited?
